take the next step in business as mission

Denver, Colorado, USA | November 4-6, 2011

Business as Mission BAMmatch

How iBAM Impact will impact you:

Content

Receive cutting-edge teaching on business as mission, delivered by leading thinkers in the movement. Discover how other Kingdom professionals are fulfilling the great commission through viable, market-leading businesses.

Context

Get a comprehensive overview of current trends and issues in business as mission around the world today. Develop a clearer vision and strategy for your own call to business.

Connections

Engage a growing community of BAM professionals through round-table discussions and other networking opportunities. Get connected with others who will help you take your next steps in business as mission.

The iBAM Impact Seminar distills the essential elements of the iBAM three and five week courses into three days of dynamic teaching, interactive discussions and engaging workshops.

Who should attend:

Those who are seeking to better understand and engage in business as a strategy for bringing the whole gospel to the spiritually lost and economically disadvantaged.

Topics and speakers:

Mike Baer

Author, business leader and business as mission pioneer.

Peter Shaukat

CEO of a leading BAM investment company working in the Arab World and Asia.

David Skews

Asia-based entrepreneur, CEO and business as mission practitioner.

Topics include Biblical Foundations for Business, Effective Business as Mission Practice and Personal Preparation for Business as Mission. You will learn proven principles for business as mission through the interactive lectures and real-life case studies presented each day.

Who we are:

iBAM Training was launched in 2008 to educate and prepare people for effective engagement in business as mission. Each year the iBAM Explore and iBAM Prepare courses equip those on all stages of their journey in business as mission. iBAM Training is an initiative of the Business as Mission Resource Team.

BAMmatch.com is an online business as mission community that connects business professionals and Kingdom impacting businesses. BAMmatch is co-sponsoring the iBAM Impact Seminar, USA.
